

I am a flight attendant with United Airlines and am very much against allowing cell phone usage onboard aircrafts during flight. In an already hostile environment the addition of cell phone would create chaos if there ever was an emergency. Terrorists could use the cell phones to spot flight attendant activity or when the cockpit door is opened. Please do not allow this terrible action.